

1. Find your polling station
at elections.ca

2. Bring ID and proof of address*

3. Vote

You need: piece of ID + proof of address

e.g. passport, health card, driver's license, letter from your residence, rental lease, student card, bank statement

You can still vote without these. Find out how at elections.ca

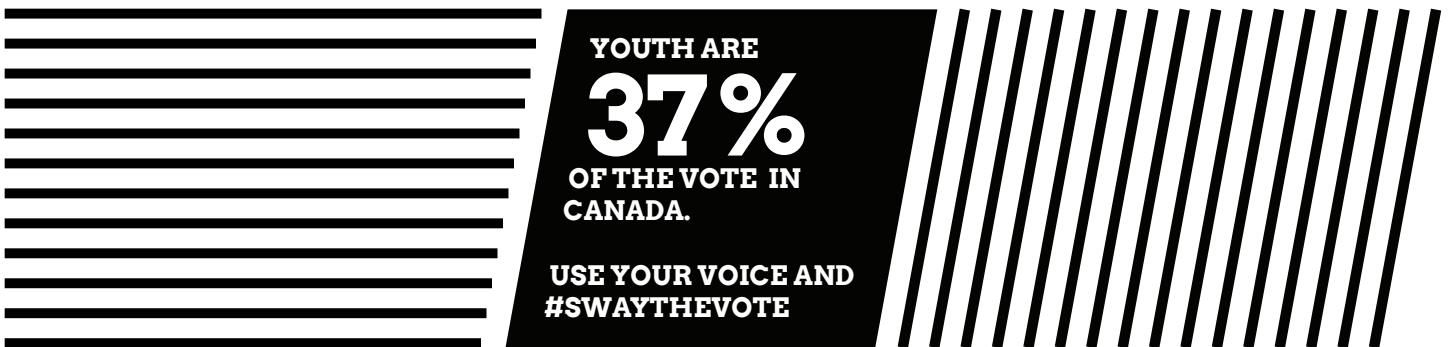

You can vote even if you...

- Can't make it on October 21st: go to any elections Canada office any day of the week before October 15 to vote.
- Are registered in a different riding. Vote at any elections Canada office any day of the week before October 15.

Register to vote online at elections.ca or register in person at a polling station.

Vote with mental health in mind. Get involved: jack.org/election

jack.org

1. Find your polling station
at elections.ca

2. Bring ID and proof of address*

3. Vote

You need: piece of ID + proof of address

*e.g. passport, health card, driver's license, letter from
your residence, rental lease, student card, bank statement*

You can still vote without these. Find out how at elections.ca

You can vote even if you...

- Can't make it on October 21st: go to any elections Canada office any day of the week before October 15 to vote.
- Are registered in a different riding. Vote at any elections Canada office any day of the week before October 15.

Register to vote online at elections.ca or register in person at a polling station.

Vote with mental health in mind. Get involved: jack.org/election

jack.org